Ever faithful, Lois Eller, shown here with Mr. Vopat, handles the myriads of reports, between CVHS and the district 241 office.

Reminiscent of a continuing building program, these four tennis courts, built with the student's recreation and athletic development in mind, are evidences of Mr. Vopat's progressive leadership. He is shown here, with Mr. Lamm, CVHS principal.

One of Mr. Vopat's pet programs, is the electronics department, inspired by John McCollum, instructor, right. Felt to be one of the most unique efforts among high schools, the Board, through Mr. Vopat has housed it in a new building and supports its development. Jim Laufenberg, left, and Jon McPherson demonstrate to Phil Lamm, principal, left, and Earl Vopat, district supt.

Those Vopat Years!

Dedication to an Outstanding Educator

Although the inevitable is hard to believe, Earl Vopat, District 241 superintendent, did, in fact, retire, December 31, 1976.

Along with the move goes about 35 tremendously successful years of teaching and administration, with all but three spent in Idaho County schools.

The South Dakota born administrator attended Colorado State College, Washington State Univ., and ending up with an MS at the University of Idaho.

Since coming to Grangeville in 1944, Mr. Vopat taught math and industrial arts, leading to high school principal. He succeeded Dorsey Riggs, now state curriculum director, as Dist. Supt. in 1961.

Bill Eimers, former Grangeville High School principal and coach, succeeds Mr. Vopat.

Mr. Vopat is a man of unusual talents, comments Phil Lamm, CVHS unit superintendent. He has a phenomenal memory and a mind for details which served him well as supt. of our huge district.

"His vision, concern for youngsters, plus his ability to inspire trustees, patrons, students, and teachers have all contributed to the success of School District 241," asserts Mr. Lamm. "Our debt-free facilities, room for expansion, and our outstanding programs are all evidence of his foresight and leadership."

Mr. Vopat credits an outstanding school board for providing this district with above average facilities and building program.

"Receiving forest service funds, passing plant facilities levy, and the passage of bonds to build high schools at Grangeville, Riggins, and Kooskia, were crucial to building this school district as second to none in the state," explains Vopat.

Primarily, this annual visit by the board is to meet the teachers and answer any questions they may have.

Despite a vigorous schedule, Mr. Vopat was never too busy to listen to others. Here, Ray Bloom, Valley Elem. prin., left, and Don Fluharty, business teacher, talk things over, right.

The First Annual Clearwater Valley High School Music Department's Talent Show was held March 17, 1977 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria with Mr. Larry Paul directing it, and Joan Dorsey being Mistress of Ceremony.

The talent show was divided into four sections. First there was the Junior High division, secondly there was the Fifth Grade and Under division, then the Adult division, and finally the High School division.

To start the program was the Kooskia Baptist Church Sunday School Choir singing "They'll Know We Are Christians By Our Love," and "Open Up Your Heart" with Mrs. Donna Graves directing and Mrs. Evelyn Bretthauer playing the piano. Next was Scott Bledsoe playing his own arrangement of "Blind Man" on the piano. After him a guitar group led by Jeri Mae Holes sang "Sunday Morning." Members of this group were Craig Robinett, Brad Robinett, Jeff Lindsley, Janet Wessels, Holly Rickett, and Leslie Merek. (1) Following them was Mary Ann Johnson singing "Home On The Range" while her mother played the piano. The entertainment kept on with an instrumental of songs done by Jolynn Peterson, Kammi Lytle, and LaRae Peters of "Yankee Doodle," "Indian Dance," "Camptown Races," "Oh Susanna," and "Goodnight Ladies." They were followed by Todd Bledsoe playing his French Horn with Mrs. Donna Graves on the piano. He played "Wings of Song," "Cradle Song," and "Military Melodies." (2) After him were two girls - Jana Pfefferkorn, and Christine Larson - doing a tap dance to "Rockin' Robin." Ending the talent for the Junior High division was a small band ensemble consisting of Kim Devin, Kathleen Donohue, Grace Paulat, Larry Squires, Jeff Marks, Mike York, Molly McPherson, and Kim Sorenson.

Fifth Grade and Under division was next with Faith Paulat singing "I'm On Top of the World", then was Patty Dorsey (3) singing "Over the Rainbow" followed by Michelle and Shaun Cochran singing "Rockin' Robin," Doing a piano solo was Faith Paulat. It was "Climbing in the Cherry Tree". This talent division ended with Joe Dorsey singing "One Tin Soldier," Even with these people being young and not having much experience they did a fantastic job and deserved every compliment.

Patricia Oswald started the Adult division by singing "Sorry Seems to Be the Hardest Word" while accompanying herself on the piano. (4) Next was Jake Wright and Kerry McCully with a little skit "Who's On First Base?". (5) Following them were three ladies singing "To You He Gives His Love." (6) The only one with this sort of entertainment was Phil Miller, a ventriloquist, and Andy in a "Stage Struck" skit. After him a brother and sister duo - Johnney Engle, Sr. and Shannon Brawner - performed by playing their guitars and singing "Blue Eyes Crying In The Rain". Following them were Yvonne Laufenberg and Dorothy Johnson playing their guitars while singing a western song with Buzz Brown playing the drums. Gary and Noni Hansen played their guitars and sang two western songs which then brought us into the High School division with Clark Schurbon playing the harmonica and Buzz Brown playing the drums to the tune of "The St. Louis Blues." Next was Deanna Bomley playing "Nadia's Theme" on the piano. Marty Graham then played the guitar and sang "Car Wash Blues" and

"Daisy Jane" which was a tribute to Mike Dorsey, who was not able to perform at the talent show, but had taught Marty many things while he was learning to play the guitar. (10) The high school division went on with Raeleen Andrews, Ken Twitchell and Steve Fehlman doing a skit called, "Little Striped Riding Hood." Following them was Greg Dunn and Clark Schurbon with a comedy skit entitled "The Prospector-s." (8)

Talent

The talent kept coming with Brenda Peeples, Cindy Flerchinger, Heather MacKenzie, Susie Engle, and Lea Sarbacher singing "Let Me Be There" while Alaine MacKenzie played the piano for them. (7) Succeeding them was Anne Marie McCall playing "Hello My Baby" and "Juanita" on the organ. Another skit was then done by Clark Schurbon, Mike Trowbridge, and Buzz Brown to the "Hawaiian War Chant." (9) They were followed by Jeri Mae Holes singing and playing the guitar to her own composition, "Edge Of Time." Next were high school people from Kamiah of different religions singing two songs. This group was known as the Interfaith Choir. Performing after them was Julie Pfefferkorn and Robin Moore singing a comedy skit "My Venus in Blue Jeans." The last performance of the talent show was Carol Dorsey singing.

After refreshments were served the Swing Choir started the entertainment by singing "Parsley, Sage, Rosemary, and Thyme," and "Ride the Carousel." (At left) Joan Dorsey then sang a song dedicated to her mother entitled "Thy Will Be Done." (Far middle left) Carolyn Hendren was next then with a poem she had written especially for the Mother-Daughter Tea. The title of it was 'Mother.' (Middle left) A Hairstyle show was then narrated by Selena Engle. Modeling hairstyles were Carolyn Hendren with the new spring cut done by Mae Reed of Mae's Beauty Salon. Following her was Mary Ulmer with an easy-care hairstyle. The cut was also by Mae Reed. Her hairstyle is easily cared for as her hair is naturally curly. Sandi Lycan was next with a Victorian hairstyle. Marcia Graves of Marcia's Beauty Salon cut her hair. (Lower left hand corner) Next was Judy Klamm wearing a western pantsuit from Sears. (Next to Sandi Lycan) More hairstyles were then done with Shirley Sego modeling a style done by Carolyn Hendren. The front was curled with electric rollers and the back was then done into a french knot. Following her was Tami Shira with a Victorian hairstyle done by Burnadette Straw of Mae's Beauty Salon. (next to Judy Klamm) Ending the hairstyle show was Sandy Eskra with a cut by Marcia Graves. It is also an easy-to-care-for style. Just wash and comb and you're ready to go. (bottom right hand corner)

The Mother-Daughter Tea was held May 13, 1977. The tea was rather enjoyable and meant much to many of us. The Tea is sponsored by the C.V.H.S. Pom Pom Team and Home Ec. Club every year. Members of these clubs this year are as follows:

Mr. Paul deserves much recognition for the job he has done with the music program this year. This is the first year with our school and with him he brought an addition to the music program Swing Choir. As if this being his first year here was not enough for him, he had to keep himself a little busier. He structured a Music Organization to sponsor the first annual C.V.H.S. Music Department's Talent Show which was a big success. He had the swing choir to participate in the swing choir workshop in Spokane, urged them to go Christmas caroling, besides having them perform at the Mother-Daughter Coffee Hour, Graduation, and a Senior Citizens Luncheon. He also kept the band very active by having them play at football games, basketball games, and a wrestling tournament. With these extras he still kept up the traditionals like the Winter Concert and Spring Concert to which there was a 'something extra' added - prizes were raffled off. 1st prize was a clock and sconces. The 2nd prizes were a canister carousel and a cosmetic carousel. A ceramic candle holder and a canister set were the two 3rd prizes, and 4th prizes were sofa pillows. When the music department went to the Lewiston Music Festival the band received a '3' and the chorus and swing choir each received a '2'.

Mr. Paul, a graduate of Lewis Clark State College, came to our school after teaching English and music for two years at Elk River. He is married to Crystal Shown who graduated from C.V.H.S. as salutatorian in 1971. With this being his first year we're sure that the music department can look forward to many more active years and we are certain it will be appreciated.

The C.V.H.S. Drama Department presented three fine productions for the 1976-1977 school year. For the first time, drama was offered as a class open to all juniors and seniors.

As a class, the students began the year by working with textbook exercises which helped them to learn basic movement and characterizations. Some of the projects included group and individual improvisations, pantomimes, voice control, and retold story. Several of these presentations were video-tape recorded to further enable the students to criticize their work and improve their acting abilities.

The student's participation and enthusiasm was great, and the class owes a special thanks to "the other feller" for his contributions.

Annual Staff

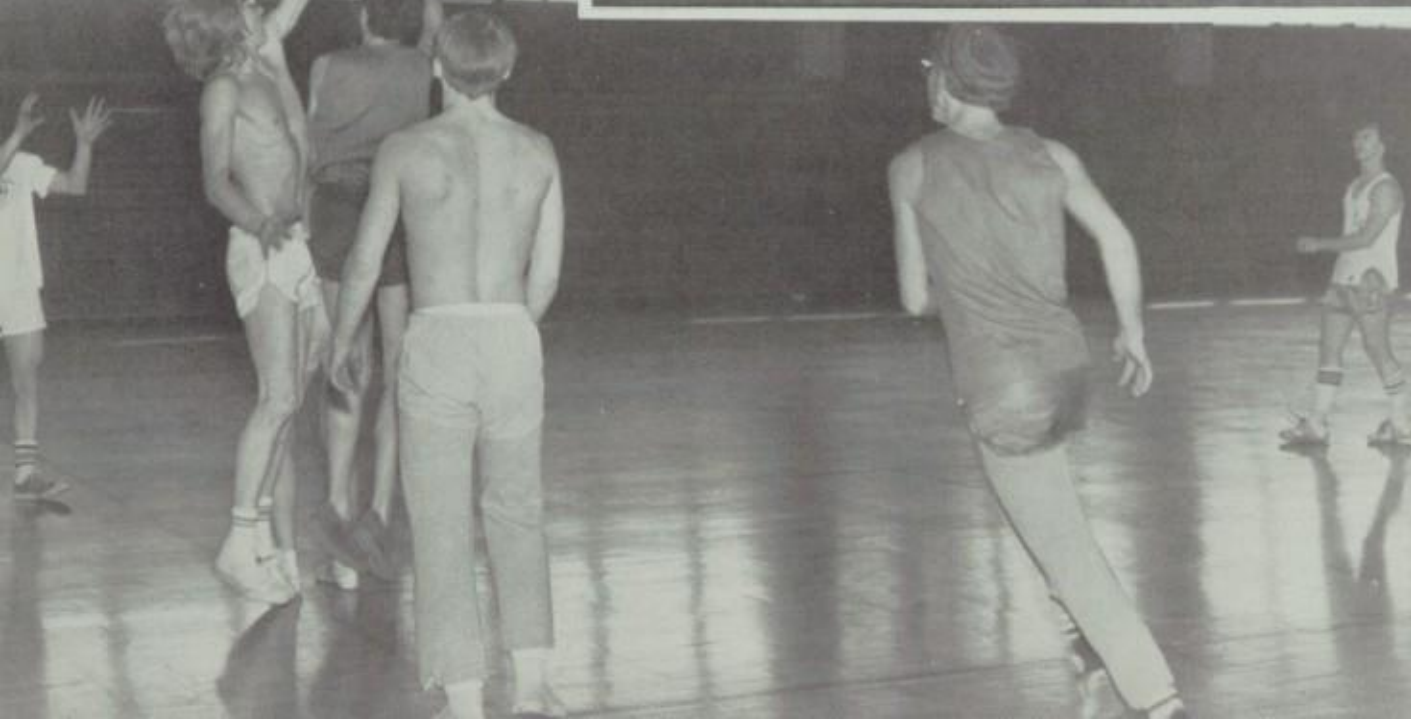

At left are annual staff members finding a way to spend their time while they wait upon Mr. Schultz to open the door. Whether it be telling jokes, tearing the door off, unhappily waiting or blowing bubbles, we all find things to occupy ourselves while waiting upon the Advisor.

Shown in the lower left hand corner are the three annual staff members contributing the most towards the annual. They are Elissa Hoeger, Joannie Dorsey - Co-Editor; and Carolyn Hendren - Editor. Some members contributed more than others but they all contributed some even if it was very little. There are also people who were not annual staff members but were more helpful than any of the other members. We would like to especially thank these people who were Elaine MacKenzie, Sherry Louis, Betsy McPherson, Raeleen Andrews and Mr. Lamm. Your help was greatly appreciated and needed even more. THANKS A LOT!!!

At left the editor expresses her appreciation to Ladd Arnotis for the beautiful color transparency which is our endsheet this year. "The picture is one of the finest I have ever taken," quotes Ladd

The girls' basketball team didn't do very good as far as making any records or anything like that, but as a team they did very well. After all who can help it if the other teams are better than you are. They came close to winning a few but still managed to lose, even if it was only by a point or two. This was their first year with Coach Greg Eck so maybe next year things will turn out even better. Lots of luck is wished to them no matter how things turn out. It takes a lot of to lose one game after another and yet still keep on playing just like you were a no. 1 team!!!

Senior Favorites

Charlette Laufenberg and Mike Trowbridge enjoy being the friendliest seniors and sometimes get out of hand.

Alaine MacKenzie and Jim Gribble are the shyest seniors even if they don't think so.

TWEEDLE-DEE (Valerie Eames) and TWEEDLE-DUM (David MacPherson) are most likely to succeed if they keep remembering to twiddle that thumb.

They may be studious but who ever learned out of a book that's turned upside down Pam Burton and Ivan Ulmer?

Who else but the organ grinder and his monkey? Clark Schurbon and Polly Brooks are probably two of the biggest clowns C.V. has ever had and hopefully will ever have.

Senior Favorites

Cindi Nash and Steve Fehlman found out that it isn't easy signing all of those autographs when you're most popular.

Here Deana Ulmer and Terry Meador have the honor of standing with the symbol of C.V. spirit. The RAM itself; because they are the Senior with the most spirit!

Words of Appreciation

Miss Urbaska came three years ago and started out teaching English I-IV, and French I. Then the next year she taught English I and III, girls' P.E., and French II. She also offered Drama to seniors to take the place of English IV. This year Drama was open to not only seniors but juniors also. The other classes she taught this year were girls' P.E., English I and III, and French I.

Not only has Miss Urbaska led an active life at C.V. but elsewhere too. She was born August 22, 1951 in Billings, Montana and was raised there. She then attended the University of Montana in Missoula from 1969-1973, receiving a B.A. in French. During her lifetime she has done a lot of traveling. In 1972 she traveled extensively in Europe and then in 1973 and '74 she lived in Paris, France. She has traveled nearly all of western U.S. including Hawaii. Other hobbies include most sports such as skiing, tennis, swimming, biking, jogging, horseback riding, backpacking, reading and cooking.

Before coming to C.V.H.S., Miss Urbaska taught French in the elementary schools in Missoula for two years. Besides teaching at C.V. she has coached girls' basketball and tennis; been advisor for speech club and drama club; helped Mrs. Swan advise honor society and ski club; supervised activities such as "Earth Week", which included poster-making, yard clean-up, and tree planting by each class, and "Have A Heart Week," which included sending valentines to the pediatrics ward at Syringa General Hospital, and a blanket toss with the proceeds going to the Heart Fund. Along with teaching French she has taught French cuisine and culture as well as grammar. Her delectables included French bread, Bûche de Noël (traditional Christmas cake), crêpes, strawberry tarts, Quiche Lorraine-and Chocolate Mousse with slides, films, and songs, completing the course.

Miss Urbaska has left us with these reflections of the past three years: "Living and working in the valley has been one of the most beautiful and valuable learning experiences of my life. The people I've met and worked with are some of the most considerate and congenial people I could ever hope to know. Truly, I shall carry fond memories of these years with me forever."

*If your foot we have ever stepped on,
or if your feelings we have ever hurt,
Please forgive us.*

*If your thoughts we have ever rejected,
or if your moods we have ever made worse,
Please forgive us.*

*If your help we have never appreciated,
or if your concern we have never wanted,
Please forgive us*

*If at you we have ever shouted,
or if at you we have ever sneered,
Please forgive us.*

*If towards you we have ever been ignorant,
or if towards you we have ever been hateful,
Please forgive us.*

*If ever we have never been the person we should be,
or if ever we have never been the person you'd want us to be,
Please forgive us.*
